NEW LINE OF CAT COLLARS

TheSophisticatedCat.Com Launches a Series of Elegant Custom Made
Cat Collars For The Cat Owners Who Want Style!

(Chicago, IL) TheSophisticatedCat.Com (www.thesophisticatedcat.com) has launched a new series of exquisite, custom, handmade cat collars. The collars were designed and developed for the cat lover who enjoys style and elegance. These collars feature delicate beads, such as Swarovski crystals and pearls and Czech glass that are available in several price ranges to provide a market that is intriguing to customers. TheSophisticatedCat.Com offers reasonably priced collars for the cat owners on a budget and offers the higher priced collars for the cat owners that spare no expense to please their furry best friends. There are numerous other compelling features of these collars. All collars are lead free as well as scratch and wear resistant, are strung on sturdy coated wire, and have a safety magnetic closure that will break away in a precarious situation. Additionally, the collars are available in five different sizes and each collar arrives in a black velvet pouch that provides style and protection! The market today is flooded with the traditional nylon and belt buckle clasp style collars. Laura Monnier, one of the owners of this site, stated "We wanted to provide a line of collars that were unique and elegant, as well as safe for your cat." A recent addition to this line is the NEW Birthstone cat collar. These have been developed for the cat lovers who want to make sure that they remember and celebrate their pet's birthdays.
